In the present situation, we have been able to create every body in rural areas but so far as their services delivery is concerned, majority of them are not upto the mark. There is a need to revitalize and strengthen the already existing bodies in rural areas rather than putting a thrust on creating more and more institutions. Creating better manpower and utilizing the local programme can do it. The real success of a rural development programme lies in achieving targets in both institutional as well as behavioural aspects. ### YOGA & NATUROPATHY PROGRAMME

Yoga is the most ancient system of development of the body and the mind. It was practiced thousands of years ago in this country and is being carried out even today. Some say Lord Shiva was its innovator. Our ancestors practiced it with remarkable success to maintain good physic and to keep mind tranquil.

Yoga has been an integral part of our Vedantic philosophy. Vedas, Upanishads and Ramayana talk about it. Lord Krishna also explained to Arjuna the secret of yoga in the Gita.

The science of yoga was coming down to us from one generation to another by the word of mouth. Among the earliest sages who contributed in laying the foundation of yoga system was Kapil who lived in 700 B.C. He authored Samkhya philosophy. He was of the opinion that the answer to human problem laid in acquiring 'Samyak Gyan'- proper knowledge. Men face sorrow, according to Kapil, because they lack proper knowledge about the spirit (self) and prakriti (nature). Once they acquire that knowledge, they overcome pain, maintain mental equilibrium and attain peace within. The question 'who am I' was always pondered over in India. But Kapil's philosophy was confined only to telling that men should acquire knowledge. He groped in the dark beyond that. He did not show the way to reach the ultimate good- how to realize the self.

The science of yoga was coming down to us from one generation to another by the e word of mouth. Among the earliest sages who contributed in laying the foundation of yoga system was Kapil who lived in 700 B.C. He authored Samkhya philosophy. He was of the opinion that the answer to human problem laid in acquiring 'Samyak Gyan'- proper knowledge. Men face sorrow, according to Kapil, because they lack proper knowledge about the spirit (self) and prakriti (nature). Once they acquire that knowledge, they overcome pain, maintain mental equilibrium and attain peace within. The question 'who am I' was always pondered over in India. But Kapil's philosophy was confined only to telling that men should acquire knowledge. He groped in the dark beyond that. He did not show the way to reach the ultimate good- how to realize the self.
